

OVERTIME BAN BEGINNING on Monday, 17 September at 00.00

The Industrial Union will begin an overtime ban in protest of the government bill to make laying off easier for small companies. Will you accept that either you or anyone else can be laid off more easily?

The Industrial Union will not accept this. The Union demands the government to drop the bill immediately, as it would only cause arbitrary layoffs in workplaces.

The overtime ban will begin on Monday, 17 September 2018 at 00.00 in all workplaces covered by the Union, excluding media and print workers, paper distributors, and salaried employees in graphical industry.

The overtime ban will be valid for the time being.

An overtime ban is a legal measure through which the Union will protect employees from being dismissed.

Read more about the overtime ban and any instructions on the Union's website, and follow social media channels.
