Applying for strike allowance

A member of an Industrial Union branch can apply for the strike allowance online.

Go to www.teollisuusliitto.fi/en

- Click on eService
- Log in with your personal banking codes
- On the front page of the eService you will find a section for strike allowance
  - If you do not find the section, make sure that your workplace information is correct
    - You will find your workplace information through your membership information
    - If there is any wrong information, you can change this through the edit function
    - If you make changes, go back to the eService front page and you will find the strike allowance section
    - You can also send an email to lakkoavustus@teollisuusliitto.fi
- Mark the number of strike days
  - An 8-hour shift is marked with the number 1
  - A 10-hour shift is marked with the number 1
  - A 12-hour shift is marked with the number 1.5
- Check that your bank account information is correct
- Remember to press save

The union reduces a tax in accordance to the tax administration's decision from the strike allowance. You do not have to send your tax card.

You can send questions about the strike allowance to lakkoavustus@teollisuusliitto.fi

The strike allowance is paid about one week after the application has been sent.

Sending false information is seen as fraud.
